International Public Health/International Health P: Empowerment Initiative. In 2008 nearly 30 campuses participated in UAEMs Global Access to Medicines Day, drawing attention to the importance of access to medicines across UAEM chapters in the US, Canada and the UK. For the first time we held our annual conference in the West Coast of the United States, where we have traditionally had a smaller base of support, and drew more than 150 students who left with a rigorous introduction to global health and intellectual property issues, as well as leadership and activism skills. Having the conference at University of California, Berkeley also greatly expanded UAEM's presence in the UC system to 8 UC campuses. Through coordinated action in the United Kingdom and a new campaign in Germany, chapters are now widespread in both countries. UAEM now has over 50 chapters in four countries. Further, students have been trained in non-profit management through training received serving on UAEM's board of directors and numerous other students have gained professional experience through leading initiatives involving industry, university administrators and governments. (150 trained in campus activism)	$0		$68,541
Medical Specialties Research: Innovation Initiative: Participated in important WHO negotiations on ensuring the global medicines research agenda addresses the needs of those in developing countries. Policies UAEM encouraged negotiators to adopt in participation with other NGOs were adopted in the final WHO Global Strategy and Plan of Action. Critically, in the midst of WHO negotiations, UAEM organized a show of support for novel innovation mechanisms from 40 eminent academics including Nobel laureates that prevented an anti-access media push by bringing negative attention to it before it was launched. UAEM students continued work on surveying neglected disease (ND) researchers to identify barriers to undertaking ND research, partnered with Scientists Without Borders to help in creating a database of ND researchers and exploring novel mechanisms for funding ND research on university campuses. (NGO action brought long-term plans for improved innovation policy at WHO)	$0		$42,069
International Public Health/International Health P: Access Initiative: Worked to create new metrics to measure university policies based on access to medicines criteria, while presidential candidates and Democratic Party adopted parts of UAEM policies into their platforms. Catalyzed by UAEM, Emory University adopted a Global Access policy to make medicines discovered there available at low cost in developing countries while the seeds of change were planted by campaigns at the University of Edinburgh, University of California and Yale University. Based on a petition filed by UAEM students, the WHO added a critical treatment for ulcers to its essential medicines list. Journals published significant papers by UAEM students on the role of universities in global health and at present in response to UAEM activism 4 universities have adopted access policies while another 5 are considering doing so. ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

- 3.1. Powers. Subject to any limitations of the Articles of Incorporation, the Connecticut Nonprofit Corporation Act or these Bylaws, all corporate powers shall be exercised by, or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of Universities Allied for Essential Medicines (UAEM) shall be controlled by the Board of Directors. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the directors shall have the following powers:

(a) To appoint and remove all officers of UAEM subject to such limitations as may appear in the Bylaws, and to prescribe such powers and duties for officers as may not be inconsistent with law, with the Articles of Incorporation, or the Bylaws.

(b) To conduct, manage and control the affairs of UAEM and to make such rules and regulations therefor, not inconsistent with law, or with the Articles of Incorporation, or the Bylaws, as they may deem best.

(c) To designate any place for the holding of any Board of Directors meeting, to change the principal office of UAEM for the transaction of its business from one location to another; to adopt make and use a corporate seal and to alter the form of such seal from time to time, as, in their judgment, they may deem best, provided such seal shall at all times comply with the provisions of law.

(d) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purpose of UAEM and to cause to be executed and delivered therefor, in UAEM's name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations or other evidences of debt, and securities thereof.

(f) To create such trusts, foundations, and subsidiaries, as the Board of Directors shall deem necessary and to appoint the trustees, directors, or other governing officials of such legal entities.

3.2. Number of Directors. The number of directors constituting the entire Board shall be a minimum of 7 and a maximum of 16, as fixed by resolution of the Board. Subject to the foregoing, the number of directors may be determined from time to time by action of the Board of Directors, provided that any action by the Board of Directors to effect such increase above the maximum or decrease below the minimum shall require the vote of at least two-thirds of all directors then in office. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any director then in office.

3.3. Qualifications for Office.

Each director, whether elected or appointed, is to be selected for knowledge of the charitable needs of the community and shall serve without compensation except for reasonable expenses incurred for or on behalf of UAEM or unless otherwise agreed by the Board of Directors by majority resolution. Directors appointed by the holder of any office or an officer or board of any other organization are to act in their own right and not as a representative of any interest or group. Each director shall be at least 18 years of age.

In addition, each elected board member will have been involved with UAEM as a student for at least one year, at either chapter or coordinating committee level, will have proven commitment to the aims and objectives of UAEM, and will not have served as UAEM paid staff in the two years prior to his election.

3.4. Election of Directors.

At least two thirds of the directors shall be nominated by the general constituency of UAEM and elected by the members of the immediate past and present Coordinating Committee (the "voting members") before the National Conference each year. The remaining directors shall be appointed by the Board after the National Conference. An invitation to join will only be extended to those candidates that are supported by two thirds of directors.

In the event that a committee or an organization having appointing authority shall cease to exist, then the Board of Directors shall designate the holder of another office or another organization to exercise the appointing authority.

3.5. Term of Office. The regular term of office for each director shall be 2 years, unless sooner terminated by death, incapacity, resignation or removal. Directors may be elected or appointed to no more than three (3) successive terms. A director who has served all or part of three (3) successive terms shall be ineligible for re-election for one (1) year. All directors shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which each was elected, until a successor has been duly elected and qualified, or until the director's prior resignation or removal as hereinafter provided.

3.6. Nomination and election of Directors. At least thirty (30) days prior to the National Conference, the Board or any committee of the Board shall make a call to the entire UAEM community, electronically or otherwise, for nominees to be elected to fill scheduled Board vacancies for the ensuing year. The Board may suggest particular qualities the Board is requires to improve its functioning but these suggestions not in any way bind nominations made by the voting members.

The Secretary shall communicate (electronically or otherwise) a list of nominees and an election date to the members of the immediate past and present Coordinating Committee (the "voting members") at least ten (10) days prior to the election deadline. The said list shall contain the names of at least one nominee to each vacancy. Voting will take place by electronic or other means and will be coordinated by the Secretary. To be elected as Director, each eligible nomination must receive votes from at least one-half of the voting members. Should the number of eligible nominations receiving votes from at least one-half of the voting members exceed the number of vacancies, the nominations will be taken in descending order of votes with the highest being invited to join the Board until the vacancies are duly filled.

3.7. Removal, Resignation. Any director may resign from office at any time by giving written notice of at least 1 month thereof to an officer of UAEM. Any director may be removed for cause by a two-thirds vote of all of the other directors then in office.

3.8. Filling of Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors may be filled by a vote of the majority of the remaining directors. A director so chosen shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the vacant office. If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a director, tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective for the balance of the unexpired term of the resigning director. However, the Board has the power to fill or leave unfilled, until the next election, all vacancies occurring on the Board, including those created by an authorized increase in the number of directors. In the event that the Board decides not to fill a vacancy for a director whose office is subject to election by the voting members, the President may call a special meeting of the voting members to elect such director. In the event that less than a quorum of the Board remains to fill vacancies, then in that event, the Board may appoint interim directors until the voting members have elected a permanent replacement. Interim board members would have the same powers as permanent board members except that they will not be able to vote on changes to the election process.

3.9. Place and Number of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at any place which has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board or by written consent of all directors. In the absence of such designation, meetings shall be held at the principal office of UAEM. The Board shall hold at least four (4) telephonic meetings and one in person meeting each school year (September to August).

3.10. Annual and Special Meetings. During or after the National Conference each year, the Board of Directors shall hold an annual meeting for the purpose of filling vacancies on the Board and the election of officers. Other business may be transacted at the annual meeting if proper notice thereof is given. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose(s) may be called at any time by the President, or, if the President is absent, or unable or refuses to act, by one-third of the directors then in office.

3.11. Notice of Meetings. A regular scheduled meeting of the directors may be held without prior notice. Notice of the time and place of special meetings of the Board shall be given personally to the directors or sent by mail or other form of communication, charges prepaid, addressed to the director at their address as shown upon the records of UAEM at least seven (7) days in advance of such meeting. Such notice shall state the general nature of the business to be considered at the special meeting.

3.12. Quorum and Voting. A quorum will consist of at least one half of the total number of board directors, the minimum being three (3). Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held, at which a quorum was present, shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws. Each director present shall be entitled to one (1) vote. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.

A director may participate in any meeting of the directors by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

The transactions of any meetings of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed, or wherever held, shall be as valid as though they had a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present confirms he waives his right to attend the said meeting to the Chair. All such waivers shall be made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

3.13. Presumption of Assent. A director who is present at any meeting of the directors, or a committee thereof of which the director is a member, at which action on a corporate matter is taken, is presumed to have assented to such action unless a dissent is entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director files a written dissent to the action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before or promptly after the adjournment thereof.
